DIPLOMA IN EDUCATIONAL PLANNING AND ADMINISTRATION

The Programme

Since 1982-83, NUEPA has been conducting a specially designed Training Programme leading to Diploma in Educational Planning and Administration (DEPA). It was initially designed as a pre-induction course for District Education Officers of various States and Union Territories of India. Over the years, the programme has undergone changes and has been suitably modified so as to be useful for serving district level educational administrators and faculty members of SCERTs/SIEs dealing with planning and management aspects of education. The programme is also useful for the officers associated with the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan. In addition, it is open to faculty members of Education Departments in Universities and Social Science Research Institutions.

So far thirty-one such programmes have been successfully organised by NUEPA. The thirty-second Programme is scheduled to commence from September 1, 2011 as per the following calendar:

First Phase

Curricular Work at NUEPA
September 1, 2011 to November 30, 2011

Second Phase

Project Work (to be undertaken at the place of posting) December 1, 2011 to February 29, 2012

Third Phase

Workshop based on Project reports at NUEPA
April/May, 2012 (dates to be announced later)

Who can be nominated for this Course?

The Education Departments of the State Governments, Union Territory Administrations or any other government/autonomous organisations and competent authorities in Universities, Social Science Research

Institutes may sponsor candidates falling in the following categories:

- (i) Newly recruited or newly promoted district level education officers or those who are in the zone of promotion as DEOs or any equivalent post;
- (ii) Officers dealing with Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan;
- (iii) In-service DEOs or officers of equivalent rank dealing with Planning and Management of Education in a district;
- (iv) State level officers dealing with Educational Planning and Management in Education Departments of the States and SCERTs/SIEs/SIEMATs;
- (v) Faculty members of disciplines related to Education Department in the Universities.

While nominating the officers to the DEPA programme, only those officers who will be able to serve the state and/or the institute for at least five years should be nominated. The age of the nominated officers should be preferably less than 50 years.

Objectives

The major objectives of the programme are:
